The Royal Scottish Country Dance Society

The principal object of the Society and its Branches is to preserve and further the practice of traditional Scottish Country Dancing and to promote the music relating to it. The Society has over 166 Branches around the world with a combined membership of around 21,000. Both the Society and the London Branch are registered charities on the basis of their educational roles in the preservation of traditional dancing.

You are invited to become a member of the Society and of the London Branch. Only members of the Society can become members of the Branch.

Benefits of membership of the Society

- Free bi-annual magazine and access to members' area of RSCDS website.
- Members can attend the annual Summer School at St Andrew's and Winter School at Pitlochry.
- The opportunity to be a member of a worldwide organisation.

Benefits of membership of the London Branch

- Members of the London Branch receive the quarterly Branch newsletter, the Reel, mailed direct.
- Discount of £1 at most Branch dances.
- Discount of £2 at the annual Branch Day School.
- 10% discount on RSCDS publications and recordings; plus any commercial discounts negotiated from time to time for the benefit of members.
