MOTION Proposed by the Committee of Management

This AGM agrees to maintain the annual London Branch membership subscriptions, comprising HQ and London Branch elements, at the 2019 level with variation to the Branch/HQ split. The HQ contribution to decrease by £2 and the London Branch element to increase by the same amount.

Background

The current single member subscription comprises two elements - £20 to HQ and £6 to London (with differing amounts for other categories of membership).

The November 2019 Society AGM agreed that HQ would reduce its element by £2 to £18, recommending that Branches kept the total subscription constant, retaining the additional £2 for local publicity and promotion.

Thus, annual membership would remain at £26 of which £18 to HQ and £8 to London Branch.

London Branch management committee proposes to use this money to support a relaunch of the classes to meet the HQ objective and the Branch's own wish to encourage younger dancers.

Branches must gain their AGM approval to amend subscriptions. There will be no effect on the total amount members pay.
